INTERESTING MASONIC VISIT.—The Commandery of Templars from Joliet, Ill., will participate in the grand Knights Templar Conclave to be held in Washington on October 8th next. The cars on which the party will travel, eat and sleep will reach this city on Sunday evening, October 6th. On the following day, Monday, the visitors will go to Mt. Maltese Lodge some time ago expressed a desire to meet and confer a degree in the old Washington Lodge room in this city, and their visit to Washington affording them an opportunity for so doing the necessary permission by which their wish could be gratified was secured from the Grand Lodge of Illinois and Virginia. Worshipful Master K. Kemper, of Washington Lodge, making all the arrangements in this jurisdiction. On the occasion of the fraternal visit, which will be a very interesting Masonic event, Washington Lodge will entertain their sister lodge at a grand banquet at which President Harrison, by special invitation, is expected to be present as the guest of both lodges. Hunt are the committee appointed to prepare the banquet.

It is reported that Col. D. A. Windsor, with others, has entered a protest with Gen. Mahone against Mr. Corbet's appointment and now the two factions are awaiting developments.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and rainy with two prisoners and two lodgers at the station house.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—Gardiner's Streets of New York Company will appear here tonight and to-morrow night. They come highly recommended both by press and public. The Philadelphia Times says: "Of all the modern melodramas of low life, there is none that holds its own so well as the 'Streets of New York.' It has an abundance of stage realism, but its spectacular effects, like the fire scene and others, are legitimately developed out of the dramatic situation. It is an interesting melodrama. Mr. Kilday's Badger is an excellent piece of acting, well conceived and effectively carried out, and the various parts are generally in competent hands."

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

New York, Sept. 11.—The opening of the stock market this morning was comparatively quiet and somewhat irregular, though the advances over last night's figures were more numerous and extended to 4 per cent. The market showed some animation, but a firm tone prevailed in the early trading and small fractional advances were established in the active shares. This was followed by a reaction, and prices were brought down a shade below the opening figures, though in none of the active list was the extreme fluctuation of more than a small fraction. At 11 o'clock the market was quiet and heavy at small fractions under the opening prices. Money easy at 3 1/4.
